Dear teachers,

First of all, we'd like to wish you and your pupils a Happy New Year, and we hope that you'll all enjoy returning to teaching and learning German after the long Christmas break. This is the third issue of the current Schuss series, again with a central Teaching Unit consisting of three Lesson Plans. It is called:

Stadt und Land

In Germany, most people live in towns and cities, but recently there has been a trend to move back to the country – Landlust is in! Young people seem to be divided between the two ways of life, as your pupils can find out on pages 6 and 7, where two young Germans speak about the pros and cons of town and country. In our video unit (Lesson Plan 2) we meet Isabella, who lives in Berlin and simply loves city life. Pupils can learn more about cities in the last part of the main Teaching Unit. This time, we report on special attractions in the Austrian capital Vienna (Wien). As a contrast, your pupils may like to read our article on a different rural region – the Zugspitze, Germany's highest mountain.

In our Teaching Plan we change the subject and move on to art. Pupils can read about two sisters, identical twins with identical paintings! Irina and Marina live in Düsseldorf by the Rhine, living and working together. They paint, as they say, like 'one person with four hands'. Pupils can use our new Language Lab Learning Unit for online activities related to this article.

Further topics are the world famous St. Bernard dogs of Switzerland, a German basket ball star living in the USA, German teens and fashion (Mode), the pros and cons of single sex schooling, and, as usual, news items, a puzzle, and audio- and online activities.

We hope that your pupils will enjoy learning German with Schuss during the long, cold winter season!

Bis zum nächsten Mal!

Pages 8–9 Lesson Plan 1

Wo lebt man besser?

Objectives

- To compare different lifestyles
- To express preferences
- To practise reading comprehension

Resource(s)

Schuss January–February 2016, pages 8 + 9

Starter

Have a class survey: Who lives in a city/town, who lives in the country, who lives in a suburb? Write the results on the board: xx Schüler wohnen in der Stadt (x in einer Großstadt, x in einer Kleinstadt), xx Schüler wohnen auf dem Land, etc. Ask your pupils to write down advantages and disadvantages of the places they live in.

Main Activity

- 1 Read the introduction in the margin of page 8 loud, sentence by sentence (more advanced level: pupils just listen without looking at the text). Ask comprehension questions about numbers and quantities: Wie viele Einwohner hat Deutschland? Wohnen mehr Deutsche auf dem Land oder in der Stadt? Wie viele Einwohner hat eine Großstadt mindestens? etc.
- 2 Divide your class into two groups – Stadtbewohner und Landbewohner. The ‘townies’ work on Lara’s text, the ‘country folk’ on Alexander’s. Ask volunteers of each group to read their section out loud. Correct their pronunciation and make sure everyone has understood the contents.
- 3 Now ask your pupils to make a list of the pros and cons of the two different environments: Stadt – Vorteile: mehr Läden, Cafés, etc. Land – Nachteile: zu wenig zu tun, zu große Entfernungen, etc. Do Lara and Alexander list the same or similar likes and dislikes as your pupils (see Vorbereiten)? Which other advantages/disadvantages did the pupils list?
- 4 Revise verb forms by asking pupils to put both interviews into the 3rd person singular.

Extension

Pupils now work in pairs, composing the interview as listed in Weiterarbeiten. Ask them to use weil clauses when stating their reasons why they prefer living in the city/the country. Essay for homework: Stell dir vor, du bist vom Land in die Stadt umgezogen (oder umgekehrt). Schildere deine Eindrücke!

Video: Meine Stadt

Objectives

- To learn facts about Berlin
- To practise listening comprehension
- To talk about your own home town/area

Resource(s)

Video: Meine Stadt (mg-plus.net/sch15video 3)

Starter

Have a brainstorming about Berlin in class. Write some key points on the board: Hauptstadt von Deutschland, 3,5 Millionen Einwohner, wichtiges Zentrum für Handel, Wirtschaft und Kultur, multikulturell. Include some important dates in the city’s history: Teilung in Ost- und Westberlin nach dem 2. Weltkrieg, Bau der Berliner Mauer 1961, Fall der Mauer 1989, Wiedervereinigung Deutschlands mit Berlin als Hauptstadt 1990.

Main Activity

- 1 Now tell your pupils that they are about to watch a video, featuring a young Berlin resident. Play the entire video. Pupils follow the transcript, underlining all words they did not understand. Explain them, and then run the video a second time.
- 2 Write three sub-headings for the video on the board: Sehenswürdigkeiten, Aktivitäten, Gefallen. Ask your pupils to add them to the transcript sections. Play the three parts one by one, asking comprehension questions after each one.
- 3 Another comprehension exercise would be the Richtig oder Falsch activity in the margin of page 9. Next, pupils work in pairs and read/act the video dialogue (one asking the questions, the other one taking the part of Isabella). Should your pupils be less advanced, hand out sheets with a simplified version of the dialogue.

Extension

For homework: write a video script on the same topic, Meine Stadt. Follow the structure of Isabella’s video, with the sub-headings Sehenswürdigkeiten, Aktivitäten, Gefallen. Pupils living in the country write a script about Mein Wohnort auf dem Land. Ask your pupils to use their smartphones to include typical locations of their city or their rural environment. Have a vote in class which video is the best.

Wien – eine europäische Metropole

Objectives

- To learn about attractions in Vienna
- To practise denn clauses
- To practise reading comprehension

Starter

As a link, mention the topic of Lesson Plan 2 by saying: Isabella aus dem Video wohnt in Berlin. Berlin ist die deutsche Hauptstadt. Then display a map of the German speaking countries, and point to Vienna: Welche Stadt ist das? Und von welchem Land ist sie die Hauptstadt? (Das ist Wien, die Hauptstadt von Österreich).

Main Activity

- 1 Ask pupils to work in pairs, finding out facts about Vienna (see Vorbereiten): Wien liegt im Südosten Österreichs. Es liegt an der Donau. Wien hat 1,8 Millionen Einwohner. Es ist berühmt für seine Musik (Wiener Walzer) und Kunst und Architektur. Sehenswürdigkeiten sind der Prater, der Stephansdom und die Hofreitschule. Add important sights, attractions, or facts yourself, should the pupils not know them. Ask your class: Wer von euch war schon einmal in Wien?

2 Divide your class into 5 small groups. Each group works on one section (Tipp). Representatives of each group read out their text loud. Have all the groups inserted the missing words from the list (left) correctly?

3 Have a quiz: One pupil thinks of one of the five Tipps. The others have to guess, of which one, by asking questions: Wo warst du? (Ich war in Wien). Was hast du dort gemacht? (Ich war in einem Café.) Hast du dort Katzen gestreichelt? (Nein) Hast du einen Strudel gebacken? (Ja, ich habe ein Strudel-Seminar gemacht.) Warst du im Café Wien? (Ja.), etc.

4 Pupils now write clauses using denn, as in

Weiterarbeiten: Ich finde Tipp 4 am interessantesten, denn ich habe nicht viel Geld zum Shoppen, etc.

Extension

For homework: look for more interesting attractions in Vienna, or write similar Tipps for a famous city in your own country. For advanced: read more about country life and changing landscapes, e.g. the article on pages 6–7 about Germany's highest mountain, the Zugspitze. If possible, listen to audio tracks 13 and 14, which are related to the subject of climate change.

Basic Vocabulary: Stadt und Land

This is a list of 30 words and phrases on the topic of Stadt und Land. Photocopy the table and ask your pupils to translate the terms.

Starter

Show some pictures of identical twins on the Interactive Whiteboard and say: Diese Jungen/Mädchen sind zwei Brüder/zwei Schwestern. Sie sehen gleich aus. Wie nennt man sie? Introduce the term Zwillinge, if pupils don't know it, by saying it loud and writing it on the board (also include the singular form, der/ein Zwilling).

Main Activity

1 Now ask the question listed under Vorbereiten:
Warum sehen manche Zwillinge gleich (show identical twins) und manche verschieden (show non-identical twins) aus? Pupils probably won't know the German terms eineiige und zweieiige Zwillinge; write them on the board. Practise the pronunciation of zweieiige Zwillinge several times, it's quite a tongue-twister!

2 Ask more questions related to the subject:
Sind Zwillinge in der Klasse? Hat jemand eine/n Zwillingsschwestern in einer anderen Klasse/Schule? Hat jemand ein Zwillingspaar als Geschwister oder als enge Freunde? Sind es eineiige oder zweieiige Zwillinge?

3 Now read the article section by section with your class, then ask comprehension questions. Before pupils do Verstehen, briefly revise weil clauses. Explain that weil is a conjunction and refer pupils to the exercises in the Language Lab Unit (possible homework).

4 Pupils now talk about one of the photos showing Irina and Marina, e.g. the one on page 5: Die Zwillinge sitzen am Tisch und malen zusammen. Man sieht viele Pinsel, Farbtuben und Gläser mit Farbe oder Wasser, etc.

Extension

Pupils work in pairs, composing an interview with Marina and Irina. Possible questions: Wie heißt ihr? Wie alt seid ihr? Wo wohnt ihr? Seid ihr eineiige oder zweieiige Zwillinge? Seid ihr sehr verschieden? Wollt ihr immer zusammen arbeiten? Könnt ihr von eurer Kunst leben? etc. For homework: more Language Lab Learning Unit activities, e.g. the reading and Richtig oder Falsch? exercise, or the missing words (adjectives) exercise.

The Düsseldorf Art Academy

Düsseldorf is the capital of the German Bundesland Nordrhein-Westfalen. The city is situated on the banks of the river Rhine. Its Kunstakademie, where Irina and Martina Fabrizius learned their craft, is one of the most prestigious art schools in Germany. It was founded in 1773, and today enjoys international fame. In the late 19th and the early 20th century the Academy attracted pioneers of modern art, such as the painters August Macke and Paul Klee. This trend continued after World War 2, and world-famous artists like Joseph Beuys, Gerhard Richter, Andreas Gursky, Rosemarie Trockel, Hilla Becher and Sigmar Polke studied and/or taught at the school. The Academy specialises in freie Kunst, with sometimes controversial and radical results. Today, it is a modern art college, with students from all over the world.
