Pages 10 - 11

Lecker und gesund?

Objectives • Listening and reading comprehension
• Vocabulary: Food • Creating menu plans

Invite students to discuss ANTWORTE! in small groups. Then ask students to read the article independently with their speaking partners and, while doing so, to insert the correct words from SCHREIBE! (page 10) into the gaps. Play the audio version of the article (www.mg-plus.net/dasrad214) and ask students to check their answers as they read along. Stop the audio-clip after each paragraph to allow for corrections, if necessary. Ask the class to complete SCHREIBE! and DISKUTIERE! in writing. Discuss the answers to both exercises in class. Provide large-format sheets of paper and coloured pencils and ask students to create a weekly menu plan for the school canteen in small groups. Each group presents their menu plan at the end of the lesson.

Pages 8 - 9

Frauen-Power 2021

Objectives • Listening and reading comprehension
• Subordinate clauses with weil • Raising awareness about International Women's Day

Begin with ANTWORTE!. Write students' suggestions on the board. Play the audio version of the article (www.mg-plus.net/dasrad214) and ask students to quietly read along. Then ask students to close their magazines and divide the class into teams. Call out a fact about one of the public figures; the first team to name her correctly gets a point, for example: Sie kämpft für eine positive Klima-Politik (Greta Thunberg). Sie ist die Initiatorin von Fridays for Future (again, Greta Thunberg). Sie ist die Präsidentin von Black Lives Matter in New York (Nupol Kiazolu). Etc. Then ask students to do SCHREIBE!. For this, briefly revise the word order in subordinate clauses with weil. As a homework assignment, ask students to do DISKUTIERE! in writing.

Pages 12 - 13

Teen-TripAdvisor

Objectives • Listening and reading comprehension
• Opinions with adjectives • Creating a moodboard

Play the audio version of the article (www.mg-plus.net/dasrad214) and ask the class to read along in their magazines. Nominate volunteers to take on the roles of the Teen-TripAdvisor critics and to read the articles aloud. Stop after each hotel and ask: Wie findet ihr das Base Camp/das Kapsel-Hotel/ das Hobbit-Hotel? Encourage students to use opinion phrases such as ich finde/ich mag...(nicht) and adjectives, and write them on the board. Students should then do SCHREIBE!. Invite students to brainstorm ideas for their ideal hotel rooms for DISKUTIERE!. Then students should choose one of the ideas and, using online resources, create mood boards for a website promoting their idea. Encourage the class to rate each other's mood boards in the style of the teen TripAdvisor reviews.

Jude Bellingham

Objectives • Reading and listening comprehension
 • Past tense of sein/haben • Devise and perform interviews

Begin with ANTWORTE!. If needed, briefly revise the negative article in the accusative kein/keine/keinen. Read the introduction to the article with the class. Nominate volunteers to read the interview aloud with roles assigned. Beginners' classes should listen to the audio version of the article instead (www.mg-plus.net/schuss214) and should read along in their magazines. Ask students to highlight the verb forms of sein (ist/bin/sind/war) and haben (habe/hat/hatte) in two different colours; then ask them to assign the verb forms correctly to the present or the past tense. Students should then do SCHREIBE!. Clarify the meaning of the five adverbs in ÜBE! in the classroom language before students move on to complete the exercise. Discuss the answers to both exercises with the class. For DISKUTIERE! ask students to work in pairs and to read up on the life of a young sports star online. Students should then use the information to write a fictitious interview with their chosen sports star. Ask all students to role-play the interviews with their speaking partners, and then invite volunteers to act out their dialogues in front of the class.

Grammar | Adverbs

There are several different types of adverbs. They express when, where, why and how something is happening. The most common types are:

• Adverbs of time (when?)

dann, später, heute, früher, zuerst ...

Example: Heute mache ich meine Hausaufgaben.

This and further exercises about adverbs and the past tense, as well as an additional writing task, can be found in the online Learning Unit DAS RAD 4 2021: www.mg-plus.net/delanglab

• Adverbs of place (where?)

hier, dort, unten, oben, hinten ...

Example: Ich bin hier zu Hause.

• Causal adverbs (why?)

also, darum, damit ...

Example: Ich bin müde. Darum gehe ich ins Bett.

• Adverbs of manner (how?)

gern, auch, sehr, so, vielleicht ...
